

*Key contract: The game engine receives only classical $(d1, d2) \in \{1..6\}^2$.
The same circuit + rejection sampling math is used for both Aer and IBM backends.
Mathematical fairness (Propositions 1-2) is independent of which backend ultimately produced the bits.*